

One Rock Capital Partners Completes Acquisition of Europe Snacks

New York, NY – December 2, 2024 - One Rock Capital Partners, LLC (“One Rock”) today announced that one of its affiliates has completed the acquisition of Europe Snacks (the “Company”), a leading manufacturer of private label savory snacks for the European market.

Headquartered in Paris, France, Europe Snacks is a leading producer of crisps, stacked chips, crackers and other savory snacks for food retail end markets. In addition to producing private label products, Europe Snacks is a co-manufacturing partner for branded food companies seeking to offer savory snacks in Europe.

“We are extremely excited to welcome Europe Snacks to the One Rock portfolio,” said Kurt Beyer, Partner at One Rock. “We look forward to collaborating with CEO Étienne Lecomte and management to build upon the company’s record of offering value, service and innovation to its customers. Europe Snacks’ leadership in the private label market across key product categories and geographies is indicative of the value proposition the Company offers to both retailers and brand owners.”

“Europe Snacks is already differentiated in its position in the industry and the One Rock team is excited to continue the Company’s momentum in growing across products and channels,” added Lukas Zeitlberger, Principal at One Rock.
