

ONE ROCK CAPITAL PARTNERS EXPANDS OPERATING PARTNER TEAM WITH ADDITION OF IGGY JAVELLANA

NEW YORK, April 8, 2026 – One Rock Capital Partners, LLC (“One Rock”), a value-oriented, operationally focused private equity firm, is pleased to announce the addition of Iggy Javellana to its team of Operating Partners. Mr. Javellana will work closely with the Firm’s portfolio companies to drive strategic information technology (“IT”) and digital transformation initiatives.

Mr. Javellana brings over 30 years of experience leading IT strategies across global organizations and private equity-backed companies. Most recently, Mr. Javellana served as an Operations Executive focused on enterprise technology across private equity portfolio companies where he led IT diligence, integrations and carve-outs for a range of transactions, drove cybersecurity initiatives across the portfolio and held interim CIO roles at portfolio companies. Prior to this role, Mr. Javellana held senior technology leadership roles at Albertsons Companies and Land O’Lakes. At Albertsons Companies, he led a captive offshore team of more than 800 members who performed application development and support, infrastructure services, service desk operations and cybersecurity services. At Land O’Lakes, Mr. Javellana managed a team of more than 140 business analysts and developers and was responsible for implementing and supporting the company’s entire software applications and data analytics portfolio.

“Iggy brings deep experience leading IT strategy and execution across complex organizations and private equity environments,” said R. Scott Spielvogel, Managing Partner at One Rock. “As we continue to invest in an increasingly dynamic technological environment, we are focused on strengthening our operational capabilities to help portfolio companies navigate complexity and unlock value. We believe his expertise will further enhance our ability to support management teams. We are pleased to welcome Iggy to the team.”

“Effective technology platforms are foundational to operational excellence and scalability,” said Iggy Javellana. “I look forward to collaborating with the One Rock team across transaction diligence and integrations and to supporting portfolio companies in executing technology and digital transformation initiatives that drive long-term value.”

Working alongside Operating Partners has been a key part of One Rock’s strategy since its inception. Mr. Javellana joins a growing team of 28 Operating Partners at One Rock.
